

The directors of Newzulu Limited (“Newzulu” or the “Company”) have established a framework of corporate governance, which they review on a regular basis.

The Company operates in accordance with the 3rd edition of the principles of corporate governance as set out by the ASX Corporate Governance Council (“CGC”) and as required by the ASX Listing Rules. The directors have implemented policies and practices which they believe will focus their attention and that of their senior executives on accountability, risk management and ethical conduct.

The CGC Principles, in conjunction with the ASX Listing Rules, require companies to disclose whether their corporate governance practices follow the revised CGC Principles on an “if not, why not” basis. This statement outlines the main corporate governance practices in place throughout the year, which comply with the CGC Principles and Best Practice Recommendations, unless otherwise stated.

1 Board of Directors

The roles of the Board and management

The role of the Board is to oversee and guide the management of the Company and its businesses with the aim of protecting and enhancing the interests of its shareholders and taking into account the interests of all stakeholders.

Details of the background, experience and professional skills of each director are set out in the Directors’ Report in the 2016 Annual Report.

In summary the Board is responsible for:

- + providing leadership and setting the strategic direction of the Company;
- + appointing and removing the managing director; chief executive or equivalent;
- + ratifying the appointment and/or removal of the chief financial officer and the company secretary;
- + reviewing and ratifying the systems of risk management, internal control and compliance;
- + approving operating budgets;
- + approving and monitoring progress of major capital expenditure, capital management, acquisitions and divestments;
- + approving the form of and monitoring financial and other reporting;
- + overseeing the Company’s process for making timely and balanced disclosure of all material information concerning the Company that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price of securities;
- + setting the risk appetite within which the Board expects management to operate and to ensure that an appropriate risk management framework has been implemented to monitor risk;
- + approving the entities remuneration framework; and
- + establishing goals for management and monitoring the achievement of those goals.

The Chief Executive Officer is responsible to the Board for the day-to-day management of the Company. The role of management is to support the Chief Executive Officer in the implementation of the agreed strategy in accordance with the delegated authority of the Board. The Chairman liaises regularly with the Chief Executive Officer, at least monthly, to discuss the general performance of the Company and any issues arising.

Chairman

The Chairman is also responsible for leadership of the Board and for the efficient organisation and conduct of the Board’s business. The Chairman should facilitate the effective contribution of all directors and promote constructive and respectful relations between directors and between the Board and management of the Company. The Chairman is responsible for briefing directors on issues arising at Board meetings and ultimately is responsible for communications with security holders and arranging Board performance evaluation.

Appointment and Election of Directors

The Company shall ensure that prior to appointing a director or recommending a new candidate for election as a director that appropriate checks are undertaken as to the person's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history.

The following information about a candidate standing for election or re-election as a director should be provided to security holders to enable them to make an informed decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect the candidate:

- (i) biographical details, including their relevant qualifications and experience and the skills they bring to the Board;
- (ii) details of any other material directorships currently held by the candidate;
- (iii) in the case of a candidate standing for election as a director for the first time:
 - a. any material adverse information revealed by the checks the entity has performed about the director;
 - b. details of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect his or her capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the entity and its security holders generally; and
 - c. if the Board considers that the candidate will, if elected, qualify as an independent director, a statement to that effect;
- (iv) in the case of a candidate standing for re-election as a director:
 - a. the term of office currently served by the director; and
 - b. if the Board considers the director to be an independent director, a statement to that effect; and
 - c. a statement by the Board as to whether it supports the election or re-election of the candidate.

A candidate for appointment or election as a non-executive director should provide the Board with the information above and a consent for the Company to conduct any background or other checks the entity would ordinarily conduct. The candidate should also provide details of his or her other commitments and an indication of time involved, and should specifically acknowledge to the Company that he or she will have sufficient time to fulfil his or her responsibilities as a director.

Written Agreements with Directors and Senior Executives

The Company shall enter into a written service contract with each of its executive directors and senior executives which sets out at a minimum a description of their position; duties and responsibilities; to whom they report; and the circumstances in which their service contract may be terminated.

The Company shall provide each non-executive director with a letter of appointment which sets out their term of appointment; expected commitments; remuneration; requirements to disclose directors' interests which may affect the director's independence; indemnity and insurance arrangements; ongoing rights of access to corporate information; and confidentiality obligations.

Company Secretary

The Company Secretary reports to the Board through the Chairman and is responsible for monitoring the extent to which Board policy and procedures are followed, and coordinating the timely completion and despatch of Board agenda and briefing material. All directors are to have access to the Company Secretary.

Meetings of the board

The Board meets formally at least once a month and on other occasions, as required. The agenda for meetings is prepared by the Company Secretary in consultation with the Chairman. Standard items include the operations report, financial reports, strategic matters and governance and compliance matters. Executives are available to participate in Board discussions as required.

Board access to information and independent advice

All directors have unrestricted access to all employees of the Company and, subject to the law and the terms of Deeds of Access, Insurance and Indemnity, access to all Company records.

Each director may, with the prior written approval of the Chairman, obtain independent professional advice to assist the director in the proper exercise of powers and discharge of duties as a director or as a member of a Board Committee. The Company will reimburse the director for the reasonable expense of obtaining that advice.

Diversity Policy

The Board has implemented a Diversity Policy in accordance with best practice and governance guidelines. The Company believes that the promotion of diversity on its Boards, in senior management and within the organisation generally is good practice and strengthens its decision-making.

The Diversity Policy operates to confirm existing employment practices, which seek to attract and retain people by promoting an environment where employees are treated with fairness and respect and have equal access to opportunities as they arise. Diversity within the workforce includes such factors as religion, race, ethnicity, language, gender, disability and age.

Gender Diversity

The recommendations of the CGC relating to reporting require a Board to set measurable objectives for achieving diversity within the organisation, and to report against them on an annual basis.

The Company has implemented measurable objectives as follows:

Measurable Objective	Objective Satisfied	Comment
Adoption and promotion of a Formal Diversity Policy.	Yes	The Company has adopted a formal diversity policy which has been made publicly available via the Company's website.
To ensure Company policies are consistent with and aligned with the goals of the Diversity Policy.	Yes	The Company's selection, remuneration and promotion practices are merit based and as such are consistent with the goals of the Company's Diversity Policy.
To provide flexible work and salary arrangements to accommodate family commitments, study and self-improvement goals, cultural traditions and other personal choices of current and potential employees.	Yes	The Company does, where considered reasonable, and without prejudice, accommodate requests for flexible working arrangements.
To implement clear and transparent policies governing reward and recognition practices.	Yes	The Company grants reward and promotion based on merit and responsibility as part of its annual and ongoing review processes.
To provide relevant and challenging professional development and training opportunities for all employees.	Yes	The Company seeks to continually encourage self-improvement in all employees, irrespective of seniority, ability or experience, through external and internal training courses, regular staff meetings and relevant on job mentoring.

The proportion of women within the whole organisation as at 28 September 2016 are as follows:

Classification	%
Women employees in the whole organisation	29%
Women in senior executive positions	0%
Women on the Board of Directors	0%

The Company has not implemented specific measurable objectives regarding the proportion of females to be employed within the organisation or implemented requirements for a proportion of female candidates for employment and Board positions. The Board considers that the setting of quantitative gender based measurable targets is not consistent with the merit and ability based policies currently implemented by the Company and therefore is not in compliance with Recommendation 1.5.

The Board will consider the future implementation of gender based diversity measurable objectives when it is more appropriate to the size and nature of the Company's operations.

The Diversity Policy is available on the Company's website.

Performance Evaluation

The Chairman shall together with the Company Secretary enable the Board to review its own performance, that of each Director and each Board Committee at least once every calendar year.

The Chief Executive Officer or equivalent shall review the performance of senior executives at least once every calendar year with reference to the terms of their employment contract. A performance evaluation for senior executives was carried out during the 2016 financial year.

The Company is at variance with Recommendations 1.6 as it has not completed performance evaluation reviews of the Board, Directors or Board Committees during the 2016 financial year. This is due to the level of significant changes which have occurred within the Company over the last 12 months and the ability of the Company to properly execute formal reviews given the number of competing priorities and changes in Directors and executive management. They will be undertaken in the 2017 financial year.

The Company employs new employees and promotes current employees on the basis of performance, ability and attitude. The Board is continually reviewing its practices with a focus on ensuring that the selection process at all levels within the organisation is formal and transparent and that the workplace environment is open, fair and tolerant.

2 Board Structure

Board structure and independence

The Company recognises the importance of having a Board comprising of directors with an appropriate range of backgrounds, skills and experience to suit the Company's current and future strategies and requirements. The composition of the board is determined by the application of the following principles:

- + persons nominated as non-executive directors shall be expected to have qualifications, experience and expertise of benefit to the Company and to bring an independent view to the Board's deliberations. Persons nominated as executive directors must be of sufficient stature and security of employment to express independent views on any matter;
- + the Chairman should ideally be independent but in any case, will be elected by the Board based on suitability for the position;
- + all non-executive directors are expected to voluntarily review their membership of the Board from time-to-time taking into account length of service, age, qualifications and expertise relevant to the Company's then current policy and programme, together with the other criteria considered desirable for composition of a balanced Board and the overall interests of the Company; and

- + executive directors shall be expected to retire from the Board on the relinquishment of their executive responsibilities.

The Company considers that the Board should have at least three directors and will aim to have a majority of independent directors (as required) but acknowledges that this may not be possible at all times due to the size of the Company.

Nomination & Remuneration Committee

The Board has established a Nomination & Remuneration Committee (“N&RC”) pursuant to the N&RC Charter.

The N&RC’s mandate is to assist the Board by considering and making recommendations on matters including:

- + remuneration policies and remuneration of directors;
- + remuneration and incentive policies of executives;
- + remuneration, retention and termination policies and procedures for senior management
- + incentive schemes;
- + superannuation and pension arrangements; and
- + succession planning.

Composition of N&RC

In view of the size of the Board, the N&RC is currently comprised of all the directors.

The Company is at variance with Recommendation 4.1 in that the N&RC is not comprised of a majority of independent directors. The Board has determined that the entire director group is best placed to represent the N&RC as they pose the best mix and range of qualifications and expertise for this committee. Furthermore, each individual member of the Board is satisfied that whilst the Company may not comply with Recommendations 4.1, all directors bring an independent judgement to bear on Board decisions.

Independent decision-making

All directors, whether independent or not, should bring an independent judgement to bear on Board decisions. Non-executive directors should inform the Chairman before accepting any new appointments as directors.

To facilitate independent decision making, the Board and any Committees it convenes from time to time may seek advice from independent experts whenever it is considered appropriate. With the consent of the Chairman, individual directors may seek independent professional advice, at the expense of the Company, on any matter connected with the discharge of their responsibilities.

Under the Company’s Constitution, the minimum number of directors is three. At each Annual General Meeting, one third of the directors (excluding the Managing Director) must resign, with directors resigning by rotation based on the date of their appointment. Directors resigning by rotation may offer themselves for re-election.

Composition of the Board

The Board should be of a size and composition that is conducive to making appropriate decisions. The Board should be large enough to incorporate a variety of perspectives and skills, and to represent the best interests of the Company as a whole rather than of individual security holders or interest groups. It should not, however, be so large that effective decision-making is hindered. The current Constitution of the Company restricts the number of directors to 9 in the absence of shareholder approval.

Board skills matrix

The Company has developed a broad based Board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills that the Board currently has (or is looking to achieve) and this is periodically reviewed against the Company’s Board representative’s skills to ensure the appropriate mix of skills and expertise is present to facilitate successful strategic direction.

The skills matrix and the average (using a scale of 1 (developing) to 3 (expert)) for the current board of directors is set out below:

Expertise	Average
Industry experience	2.5
Operational experience	2.5
Legal, governance and compliance	1.7
Strategy	3.0
Commercial acumen	3.0
Financial literacy	1.7
Risk management	2.0
Executive leadership	3.0
Government relations	3.0
Stakeholder relations	2.5
Remuneration and nomination	2.0
Geographic (North America and Canada)	2.5

The Board has undertaken reviews of the skills matrix against the Board composition during the year and identified that given the Company's strategy to license the Newzulu Platform technologies to the world's leading publishers, broadcasters and brands with a North American focus, the Board shall consider candidates with skills and experience in those areas for new appointments made in the future. Subsequent to year end, the Company appointed Mr Ed Wilson, a candidate whom the Board felt met these criteria. The Board also has regard to the Company's Diversity Policy and the CGC Principles and will aim to achieve diversity and independence in its membership where possible, also having regard to the size and nature of the existing Board, and the magnitude of the Company's operations.

Independent Directors

The Company will regularly review whether each non-executive director is independent and each non-executive director should provide to the Board all information that may be relevant to this assessment.

The Company has disclosed in its Annual Report:

- + the names of the directors considered by the Board to be independent directors;
- + if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type that might cause doubts about the independence of the director but the Board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and
- + the length of service of each director.

The Company presently has two independent non-executive directors of four members on the Board, have appointed Mr Wilson as an additional independent non-executive director on 31 August 2016. In determining each director's independence, the Board will use the guiding principle that an independent director is independent of management and free of any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with, or could reasonably be perceived to materially interfere with, the exercise of their unfettered and independent judgement. In applying the guiding principle, the Board will take into consideration the definition in the revised CGC Principles and Recommendations and appropriate materiality.

The Company is at variance with Recommendation 2.4 in that the majority of directors are not independent. The Board has determined that the composition of the current Board represents the best mix of directors that has an appropriate range of qualifications and expertise, can understand and competently deal with current and emerging business issues and can effectively review and challenge the performance of management. Furthermore, each individual member of the Board is satisfied that whilst the Company may not comply with Recommendation 2.4, all directors bring an independent judgement to bear on Board decisions.

If a director's independence status changes this should be disclosed and explained to the market in a timely fashion.

The Company will endeavour to ensure that the majority of its directors are independent at all times, subject to the right of security holders in general meeting to elect and remove directors.

Induction and education

The Board has implemented an induction process to enable new directors to gain an understanding of:

- + the Company's financial, strategic, operational and risk management position;
- + the culture and values of the Company;
- + the rights, duties and responsibilities of the directors;
- + the roles and responsibilities of senior executives;
- + the role of any Board Committees in operation;
- + meeting arrangements; and
- + director interaction with each other, senior executives and other stakeholders.

Directors will have reasonable access to continuing education to update and enhance their skills and knowledge, including education concerning key developments in the Company and the relevant industry sector.

Access to information

The Board has the right to obtain all information from within the Company which it needs to effectively discharge its responsibilities.

The Chief Executive Officer (or equivalent) is required on request from the Board to supply the Board with information in a form and timeframe, and of a quality that enables the Board to discharge its duties effectively. Directors are entitled to request additional information where they consider such information necessary to make informed decisions. Directors are entitled to meet with executives as required to fulfil their executive roles, or in the case of non-executive Directors provided prior notice is given to the Chairman or the Chief Executive Officer (or equivalent).

3 Act Ethically and Responsibly

Code of conduct

The Board has adopted a Company Code of Conduct to promote ethical and responsible decision-making by all employees (including directors). The Code embraces the values of honesty, integrity, accountability and equality and to strive to enhance the reputation and performance of the Company. In summary, the overriding principles are:

- + All employees must conduct their duties honestly and in the best interests of the Company as a whole;
- + Treat other stakeholders fairly and without discrimination;
- + Respect confidentiality and not misuse Company information or assets;
- + Conduct themselves in accordance with both the letter and spirit of the law; and
- + Maintain a safe working environment.

The Code of Conduct is available on the Company's website.

4 Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting

Audit & Compliance Committee

The Board has established an Audit & Compliance Committee ("A&CC") pursuant to the A&CC Charter.

The A&CC's mandate is to assist the Board by:

- + reviewing with management the adequacy and effectiveness of internal control systems, expenditure controls and reporting systems;
- + reviewing all published financial statements of the Company;
- + reviewing the scope and independence of external audits;
- + advising on the appointment, rotation, performance and remuneration of external auditors;
- + reviewing and evaluating risk management policies in the light of the Company's business strategy, capital strength, legal compliance requirements and overall risk tolerance;

- + reviewing the adequacy of its insurance policies; and
- + periodically reviewing the adequacy of accounting, financial, legal and other personnel resources.

Composition of A&CC

In view of the size of the Board, the A&CC is comprised of all the directors. The external auditors and the Chief Financial Officer are invited to Committee meetings at the discretion of the Committee.

The Company is at variance with Recommendation 4.1 in that the A&CC is not comprised of all non-executive directors. The Board has determined that the entire director group is best placed to represent the A&CC as they pose the best mix and range of qualifications and expertise for this committee. Furthermore, each individual member of the Board is satisfied that whilst the Company may not comply with Recommendations 4.1, all directors bring an independent judgement to bear on Board decisions.

CEO/CFO declaration

Consistent with the requirements of CGC Principles 4 and 7, the persons performing the roles of chief executive officer and chief financial officer must state in writing to the Board that the Company's financial reports present a true and fair view, in all material respects, of the Company's financial condition and operational results and are in accordance with relevant accounting standards. Additionally, the persons performing the roles of chief executive officer and chief financial officer are required to state in writing that this is based on a sound system for risk management and internal compliance and control which implements the policies adopted by the Board and is operating efficiently and effectively in all material respects.

External auditor available at AGM

The Company shall ensure that its auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit and the preparation and content of the auditor's report.

5 Timely and balanced disclosureContinuous Disclosure Policy

The Company understands and respects that timely disclosure of price sensitive information is central to the efficient operation of the ASX's securities market and has adopted a comprehensive policy covering announcements to the ASX, prevention of selective or inadvertent disclosure, conduct of investor and analyst briefings and media communications.

The Company Secretary has responsibility for coordinating disclosure of information to the ASX.

The Company's Continuous Disclosure Policy is reviewed periodically and updated as required and is consistent with ASX Principle 5. The Continuous Disclosure Policy is available on the Company's website.

Securities Trading Policy

The Board has adopted a policy and procedure on dealing in the Company's securities by directors, officers and employees. The policy prohibits trading by all employees and directors of the Company and its related entities at all times where the transaction is intended for short term or speculative gain or where the person is in possession of price sensitive information. All Directors and employees (including their immediate family or any entity for which they control investment decisions), must ensure that any trading in securities issued by the Company is undertaken within the framework set out in the Securities Trading Policy.

The Securities Trading Policy does not prevent Directors or employees (including their immediate family or any entity for which they control investment decisions) from participating in any share plan or share offers established or made by the Company. However, Directors or employees are prevented from trading in the securities once acquired if the individual is in possession of price sensitive information not generally available to all security holders.

Additional restrictions are placed on trading by Directors, executives and other key management personnel as determined by the Chairman and Company Secretary from time to time ("Restricted Employees").

In addition to the overriding prohibition against dealing in the Company's securities when a person is in possession of inside information, Restricted Employees and their associated parties are at all times prohibited from dealing in the Company's securities during prescribed 'closed' periods. The Company has nominated closed periods to run from the end of the financial quarter up to the day after the release date of the quarterly report (Appendix 4C). Restricted Employees must also obtain written consent from the Chairman or Managing Director/Chief Executive Officer prior to trading in the Company's securities.

The Securities Trading Policy also includes a clause prohibiting Directors and executives from entering into transactions in associated products which operate to limit the economic risk of security holdings in the Company over unvested entitlements.

6 Shareholder Communication

The Company places considerable importance on effective communication with shareholders to ensure their access to timely and relevant information. The Company communicates information on its activities and financial performance through the issue of the annual and half-year financial reports, quarterly reports on activities and cash flows, periodic investor updates and through other announcements released to the ASX.

The Company posts all reports, ASX announcements, media releases and copies of research reports on the Company's website at www.newzululimited.com. The website contains an archive of ASX announcements and annual reports for at least the last 3 years.

The Company encourages Shareholders to register with the Company to receive email notifications of when an announcement is made by the Company to the ASX, including the release of the annual report, half yearly reports and quarterly reports. The Company will, wherever practicable, take advantage of new technologies that provide greater opportunities for more effective communications with shareholders.

The Company will ensure that the annual general meeting is held in a manner that enables as many shareholders as possible to attend and encourages effective participation by shareholders. In any notice of meeting to be despatched to Shareholders, the Company Secretary shall remind all Shareholders that they are encouraged to participate at the meeting.

Website and e-communications

The Company's website will be used to provide summary information on all areas of the business including:

- + each of its directors and senior executives;
- + the Corporate Governance Policies, Constitution and other corporate governance materials;
- + copies of its annual reports and other financial statements;
- + copies of its announcements to ASX;
- + webcasts and/or transcripts of meetings of security holders and copies of any documents tabled or otherwise made available at those meetings;
- + if it keeps them, webcasts and/or transcripts of investor or analyst presentations and copies of materials distributed at those presentations; and
- + such other information as is required by the ASX Listing Rules or recommended by the ASX Corporate Governance Council.

7 Recognise and manage risk

Management is ultimately responsible to the Board for the Company's system of internal control and risk management. The Audit & Compliance Committee ("A&CC") (being the Board) monitors the risk management of the Company.

The Company is committed to the identification, monitoring and management of risks associated with its business activities and has established various financial and operational reporting procedures and other internal control and compliance systems in this regard. These include:

- + delegated authority limits in respect of financial expenditure and other business activities;
- + a comprehensive annual insurance programme;

- + internal controls to safeguard the Company's assets and ensure the integrity of business processes and reporting systems;
- + regular cash flow reporting and capital adequacy monitoring;
- + annual budgeting and monthly reporting systems for all businesses which enable the monitoring of progress against performance targets and the evaluation of trends;
- + appropriate due diligence procedures for acquisitions and divestments; and
- + disaster recovery procedures and crisis management systems.

Risk management policies and procedures shall be adopted to identify, assess and minimise material risks affecting the Company.

As noted in Principle 4, the Company is at variance with Recommendation 4.1 in that a majority of the members of the A&CC are not independent directors. The Board considers that this composition is appropriate given the current size of the Company.

The persons performing the roles of Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer or equivalent are required annually to state in writing to the Board that the Company has a sound system of risk management, that internal compliance and control systems are in place to ensure the implementation of Board policies, and that those systems are operating efficiently and effectively in all material respects.

Review by the Board

The Board must review the effectiveness of implementation of the risk management system at least annually and has done so in the 2016 financial year.

When reviewing risk management policies, the Board should take into account the Company's legal obligations and should also consider the reasonable expectations of the Company's stakeholders, including security holders, employees, customers, suppliers, creditors and the community.

The Board believes it is not of a size to justify having an internal audit function for efficiency purposes and this role is undertaken by the full Board as described above. The Board devotes time during its periodic Board meetings to fulfilling their obligations associated with overseeing risk and maintaining the entity's risk management framework and associated internal compliance and control procedures.

Economic, environmental and social sustainability risks

Note 5 to the financial statements in the 2016 Annual Report describes the economic risks to which the Company has an exposure and the Company's objectives, policies and processes for measuring and managing those risks. The Board does not believe the Company has any material exposure to environmental and social sustainability risks at the present time.

8 Remunerate fairly

Remuneration Committee

The Board has established a Nomination & Remuneration Committee ("N&RC") (being the Board) pursuant to the N&RC Charter.

As noted in Principle 2, the Company is at variance with Recommendation 2.1 in that a majority of the members of the Nomination & Remuneration Committee are not independent directors. The Board considers that this composition is appropriate given the current size of the Company.

The Chair is not present at the discussion of his remuneration.

Remuneration

The role of the N&RC is to ensure that appropriate remuneration policies are in place and that they meet the needs of the Company and enhance corporate and individual performance.

The N&RC is responsible for reviewing:

- + executive remuneration and incentive policies;
- + the remuneration packages of senior management;

- + the Company's recruitment, retention and termination policies and procedures for senior management;
- + superannuation arrangements;
- + the performance management system operating within the organisation and its effectiveness; and
- + the remuneration framework for directors.

Remuneration levels are competitively set to attract suitably qualified and experienced directors and senior executives, having regard for Company performance. Shareholders in general meeting have approved a directors' fee pool limit of $300,000 from which non-executive directors' fees may be paid.

The performance of the Chief Executive Officer (or equivalent) and other executive directors is reviewed by the Board. The performances of the other executives and staff are reviewed on an annual basis by the Chief Executive Officer.

Compensation packages may include a mix of fixed and variable compensation and short and long-term performance-based incentives.

Further details of compensation policies are set out in the Remuneration Report in the 2016 Annual Report.
